DESCRIBE THE PRESENT AND ORIGINAL (IF KNOWN) PHYSICAL APPEARANCE

9905 Railroad Ave. is a two storey shingled house that has what appears to be a stone foundation. It is set back quite far from the dirt road and it is located between 9907 and 9901-9903 Railroad Ave. The west elevation houses a dormer window that is arched and has 2/6 lights. There are 2 corbeled interior end chimnies and one end chimney at the east gable. This house also has a main block and a wing. There is a porch with a shingled shed roof at the west facade of the house which is 3 bays wide. Four wood posts with fancy scroll work support the roof of the porch. The north and south bays of the first storey of the west elevation have double hung windows with 4/4 lights, in wood frames. A wood door with a 2 light transom occupies the centerbay. The second storey of this facade has double hung 2/2 light windows in the north, center, and south bays.

The south facade fully shows the main block with the attached wing. The first and second stories of the main block have one 2/2 light double hung windows apiece in the east bays. The attic storey has a 2/2 light window in the west bay of the main block. The wing of this facade is at the east end of the house. It is 2 stories high and has a flst roof. The first storey has 3 windows with 6 lights in the 3 westmost bays. There is a door with a shed roof porch in the center bay, and in the last 2 east bays there are two 6/6 light windows. The second storey has a 2/2 light double hung window in the east bay.

In the east and west bays of the first and second stories of the north facade is a 2/2 light double hung window. The attic storey has a ~~2/2 light window~~ a 2/2 light double hung window in the center of the east and west bays.

STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANCE

9905 Railroad Ave. is a typical late 19th century or early 20th century vernacular dwelling. This house, being 1 of a set of 3 similar houses is significant in its difference from the houses on Church Lane. It is set apart from its neighboring houses in the set, and it has been built a comfortable distance away from the dirt road as opposed to those houses on Church Lane. This house is significant in its relationship to the other 2 houses in the set and to the empty lot where a 4th house used to be located.
